NIKAŌ'S INFORM AND CONSENT

We are pleased that you have selected Nikaō Counseling Center for your counseling needs. This document is designed to inform you about our office policies and to ensure that you understand our professional relationship.

Nature of Counseling

We use an approach to counseling which takes into account the spiritual, psychological, social and biological dimensions of the client. The relationship we establish will be characterized by mutual respect and cooperation. Our mutual goal will be that you will grow, develop, and be committed to working on things we talk about both during our sessions and at home. Our ultimate goal is that you will come to a place of being able to resolve your own issues and/or live with manageable pain without our assistance or intervention. We will offer you tools in which you can utilize in the achievement of this goal.

Psychotherapy can have benefits and risks. Since therapy often involves discussing unpleasant aspects of your life, you may experience uncomfortable feelings like sadness, guilt, anger, frustration, loneliness, and helplessness. On the other hand, psychotherapy has also been shown to have many benefits. Therapy often leads the client to having better relationships, solutions to specific problems, and significant reductions in feelings of distress. Please note, however, that it is impossible to guarantee any specific results regarding your counseling goals. Together, we will work to achieve the best results possible.

Confidentiality

The staff at Nikaō Counseling Center operates as a team to improve the quality of counseling. Because of this, the process of your counseling may be discussed with your counselor's colleagues and/or your counselor's supervisor and will remain confidential. All counselors with the title "LPC-Associate" are supervised weekly by their Texas Board Approved Supervisor. Everything that is communicated within our sessions is confidential information and cannot and will not be communicated to any other person or organization without your expressed written consent. This confidentiality applies to any and all records of your identity, diagnosis, session or progress notes, evaluation, treatment or treatment plan, as well as any information communicated by phone, fax, or email.

Please note: confidentiality will not be observed with respect to the following conditions:

1. You direct me by means of a signed and dated written consent form to disclose information to a person or organization of your choice, (please note: both parent's signatures will be required in order to release confidential information of a minor),
2. I determine your teen is a danger to themself or others, in which case I am required to inform a medical or a law enforcement agency,
3. I become aware of your teen's abusive or neglectful behavior toward a minor,
4. I become aware of your teen's abusive, neglectful, or exploitive behavior toward the elderly or disabled persons,
5. I am ordered by a court to disclose information,
6. I need to utilize the services of a collection agency for any unpaid balance (no clinical information will be provided, only contact information), or
7. I find it helpful to seek counsel from another mental health professional in order to help you more effectively seek recovery and emotional healthiness,
8. I become aware of your teen being abusive or neglectful behavior toward a minor,
9. I become aware of your teen's abusive, neglectful, or exploitive behavior toward the elderly or disabled persons.

Technology

It is very important to be aware that computers, e-mail and cell phone communication can be relatively easily accessed by unauthorized people and, hence, can compromise the privacy and confidentiality of such communication. E-mails in particular are vulnerable to such unauthorized access due to the fact that servers have unlimited and direct access to all e-mails that go through them. Additionally, the emails sent from our computers/phones/tablets are not encrypted. Nikaō counselors only use computers that are equipped with a firewall, a virus protection and a password. Please keep this in consideration when using your computer/phone/tablet to communicate with our counselors. In addition, it is important for you to know that our office phone number is unable to receive text messages.

Weather Policy

In the event of a weather emergency, we defer to DFW school districts. If local schools are closed, no fees will be collected for cancelations of counseling appointments. However, your counselor may still be willing to meet either in the office or offer a phone or telehealth session if you would like. Your counselor will communicate with you regarding your appointment in the event of inclement weather.

Fee Agreement and Cancellation Policy

Sessions are 50 minutes in length. Payment is due at the conclusion of each session. We accept cash, checks, MasterCard/Visa. Please make checks payable to your therapist. The cost for therapy is $150.00 per 50-minute session. If there is a financial need, talk directly to your therapist. Receipts will be provided after each session should you wish to file insurance. Due to variations in policies, we cannot guarantee payment by your insurance company. If you lose your receipt and need a copy, there will be a $.50 charge per receipt. In addition, a $25.00 fee will be charged for all returned checks.

Should you need to cancel your appointment, please call or email your counselor at least 24 hours in advance. Except for emergencies, the normal fee will be charged for missed appointments if not given 24 hours notice. (Voicemail is available 24 hours a day, seven days a week). I understand that fees for all services are due at the time of my appointment. I also understand that the normal fee will be charged for missed appointments if my therapist is not given a 24 hour advance notice.

We wanted to make you aware that several days a week, Hazel, our Nikaō therapy dog is at the office hanging around our clients and counselors. She camps out mostly in Liz Casteel's office but at times you may see her in the checkout area or greeting people in the waiting room. If this is bothersome to you for any reason, please let your counselor know so that Hazel can be kept in another office while you are here at Nikaō. We would not want Hazel to cause you to experience anxiety or discomfort in any way. Initialing below confirms that you are aware that Hazel is in our office space.
